EXAMINERS AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and /or additions by unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such amendment, it must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Raczkowski (Reg. No. 52,145) on February 17, 2005.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

17. (cancelled)

19. (cancelled)

Claims 17 and 19 have been cancelled and claims 1-16 and 18 remain as previously presented.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

Claims 1-16 and 18 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The examiner has found that the prior art of record does not teach or suggest or render obvious a provisioning broadband and narrowband services using a VDSL-based communication network, and more particularly to a system architecture and method for automatically activating VDSL service by self-discovering customer premises equipment. The major difference in the independent claims not found in the prior art of record is detecting a coupling of a user device to the destination terminus of the at least one loop; detecting an address associated with the coupled user device, the address not being stored in the service record or in the database; determining a path associated with the coupled user device, the path including discovered loop component information; matching the path discovered loop component information with the loop component information specific to the user that is stored in the service record in the database; and providing the requested content via the determined path using the address associated with the user device upon matching the discovered loop component information with the loop component information specific to the user as set forth in the specification and recited in the independent claims 1, 14 and 15.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and , to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submission should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
